1 John 2:24-25 Therefore let that abide in you which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you also will abide in the Son and in the Father. And this is the promise that He has promised us—eternal life.

- ▶ What does it mean to go back to what you heard in the beginning?
 - ▶ What does it mean to abide in Christ?
 - ▶ How do we abide in the Son and Father?
 - ▶ What is the evidence of not abiding in Christ?
 - ▶ What does God's promise give us in addition to eternal life?

1 John 2:26-27 These things I have written to you concerning those who try to deceive you. But the anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will abide in Him.

6

► Who is it who had the anointing?

► What does it mean we don't need anyone to teach us?

1 John
2:26-27

7

1 John 2:28-29 And now, little children, abide in Him, that when He appears, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming. If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness is born of Him.

8

► What might cause us to be ashamed before Christ at His coming?

► What is the difference between barely saved and almost saved?

► What difference does it make if I'm only barely saved as long as I end up in Heaven?

2:28-29
